PSO Meeting
April 5, 2022

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● We are planning fun events for staff appreciation week including contests, prizes and member made photo station with props. Nothing Bundt Cakes to drop off “prizes” with raised money. ● Budget for staff appreciation week to be determined. Access for PSO members to building and food approval pending. ● Calls/emails out to multiple restaurants/vendors. Donation forms to be obtained and filled out.
School Report	Given by Gina Costa: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Just back from spring break. Prior to break Tyler Haim was named employee of the month. He was acknowledged at the board meeting and there was a parade in his honor, kids made posters. ● Respect week was discussed in the last meeting and took place before break. St. Patrick’s Day activities were done by staff & students.
Open Forum	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Sheila Geier discussed camp scholarships and will be keeping tabs on camps setting up dates, and also trying to link kids up with camps for various needs. PSO worked hard to raise money for camp scholarships. SEDOL raised money as well. Camp scholarship info can be found on the “Camp Scholarship” tab on the PSO page. ● Allison Schmitt appreciates the PSO. ● Karen Schrek mentioned that Allison promised staff switch training, and possibly for families as well before Christmas. ● Stacie Chakiris added that hopefully we can host a parent mixer with babysitting at the training event. ● Val Donnan shared that the SEDOL foundation had planned a conference before COVID, and will be reigniting the planning process for winter of 2023.
Meeting Adjourned	Motion to end the meeting made by Karen Schrek at 5:21pm. Next meeting to be held
